GODALMING LIBRARY - CIRCUS STARS Summer Reading Challenge 2011

Starts July 9 and runs throughout the Summer Holidays – and it's FREE!

Visit your local library this summer and join in the fun of Circus Stars. Libraries will be organising special Circus Stars events and activities throughout the summer holidays and, for budding young writers, there will be a poetry competition. Children are given a colourful cut-out circus stage to start their challenge, which is to read six books of their choice over the long summer break. As they read, they collect stickers to complete their stage set and help the six Circus Stars put on a show.

For children of all ages and reading abilities. They can read any type of book, as long as you borrow them from the library. Audio books count too! If they read 6 books to complete their stage set, they are awarded a special medal and a certificate.

For more details visit the special Circus Stars Summer Reading Challenge website: www.circus-stars.org.uk

Or visit your local library, or look at the Circus Stars page on the Surrey County Council website
